on behalf of

On behalf of the Eastern Iowa Honor Flight, Operation Backpack & Team Breast Friends we want to ask for your support with our upcoming charity fundraiser. On Saturday, August 13, 2016 we will be hosting our 16th annual Island Fever Charity Fund Raiser at the Coralville Marriott in Coralville, Iowa. Proceeds from this year's event will benefit the Eastern Iowa Honor Flight, Operation Backpack and Team Breast Friends. We hope that you will consider supporting this great event and these three great organizations.

Specifically, we are asking you to donate a gift card (in any denomination) or merchandise. We will gladly accept any item that you deem to be appropriate for this request. Donated items are used with our two main fundraising activities at the event - the merchant bucket raffle and the silent auction.

All donations are tax deductible and every donation (large or small) makes a huge difference and contributes to the success of our event. All auction donors will be recognized in our official event program as an official Friend of the Phlock and may be eligible to receive complimentary event tickets depending on the retail value of the donation (see back of letter). Last year's Island Fever Charity Phlocking generated over $20,000 and we hope to significantly increase that amount in support of our charitable causes this year.

Thanks again for considering this donation request. Should you need additional information to fulfill this request, our club president can be reached at 319-930-2833 or via e-mail at bmason@gwaea.org. Donations can be mailed to the address listed on our letter head or you may also contact us directly to arrange to have your donation picked up (preferred method).

We look forward to your reply and sincerely hope you will catch the fever and support this great event and more importantly, the great causes that benefit from it.

Sincerely,

Bart Mason,
President

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.
